Numb. 10673.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 21, to Saturday October 25, 1766.

St. James's, October 25.

THIS Day being the Anniverſary of the King's Acceſſion to the Throne, who entered into the Seventh Year of His Reign, there was a very numerous and brilliant Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment His Majeſty on the Occaſion. At Noon the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Publick Demonſtrations of Joy throughout London and Weſtminſter.

Whitehall, October 25.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint William-Henry Lyttelton, Eſq; His Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the King of Portugal.

St. James's, October 25.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly of the Province of New Hampſhire in New-England, has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly of your Majeſty's Province of New Hampſhire in New England, humbly beg Leave, amidſt the general Acclamations of this joyful Continent on the Repeal of the late Stamp-Act, to return our moſt dutiful and ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for this eminent Proof of your Royal Benignity and Favor, of your Paternal Care and Concern for the Diſtreſſes of your faithful Subjects in this remote Part of your Dominions.

Truly ſenſible of that unexampled Juſtice and Lenity which ſhine throughout the Reigns of the illuſtrious Kings of your Royal Houſe, this Inſtance of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion does not ſurprize us; but it ſinks deep into our Hearts, and binds us unto your Majeſty with the ſtrongeſt of all Ties, thoſe of Affection and Gratitude.

May your Majeſty reign long and proſperouſly over a grateful People; and may there never be wanting an Heir of your Royal Virtues and Family to continue to the lateſt Poſterity thoſe Bleſſings which the preſent Generation enjoy under your Majeſty's happy Government.

Province of New Hampſhire. } In the Houſe of Repreſentatives, July 10, 1766,

This Addreſs being read:

Voted unanimouſly, That it be preſented to His moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Henry Sherburne, Speaker.

In Council eodem Die, read and unanimouſly concurr'd:

Theodore Atkinſon, jun. Secretary.

Conſented to,

Benning Wentworth.

Florence, October 7. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick arrived here on Sunday laſt, being attended by the Lieutenant of the Poſts, whom the Great Duke had ſent to Bologna to prepare Horſes for him on the Road. His Highneſs went the ſame Evening incognito to the Theatre, and the next Day did Sir Horace Mann, His Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary here, the Honour to dine at his Houſe with ſeveral of the Nobility. In the Afternoon his Highneſs went to the Palace, which the Great Duke inhabits in the Country, by whom, and the Great Dutcheſs, he was received with the greateſt Marks of Diſtinction. There was a Drawing-Room at Court the ſame Evening, at which the Prince aſſiſted; after which their Royal Highneſſes came to the Theatre in Town. Marquis Capponi, who acts as Great Chamberlain, was ſent thither to invite the Prince to dine at Court To-day.

Turin, October 11. Laſt Sunday his Sardinian Majeſty having received an exact Account of the Quantity and Quality of all Sorts of Grain in his Dominions, publiſhed an Order, by which the Extraction of it is prohibited upon Pain of corporal Puniſhment.

The ſame Evening, between Nine and Ten o'Clock, the Dutcheſs of Savoy was brought to Bed of a Son, who was baptized the next Day with great Ceremony, and the Title of Count de Maurienne was conferred on him by the King of Sardinia.

Laſt Thurſday, the 9th Inſtant, Cardinal Rovera di Pralorme, Archbiſhop of Turin, died here in the 82d Year of his Age.
